WIMBLEDON

It's the Wimbledon finals! The culmination of one of the oldest and most famous events in the sporting calendar. The Championships, Wimbledon, to give them their full name — though everyone simply refers to them as Wimbledon — are the oldest tennis tournament in the world, having been held since 1877. Wimbledon is now the only one of the four Grand Slam tennis tournaments still played on outdoor grass courts. The tournament is full of British traditions, including Royal patronage, a formal dress code for players and the consumption of strawberries and cream —34,000 kg of strawberries and 10,000 litres of cream in 2017!
